FROM THE DESK OF PRESIDENT

Steve Harrison

ILNA Members,

On April 30th ILNA held its annual spring board meeting and much planning was discussed for upcoming ILNA events. One event is the Library Book Program which ships numismatic book donations to libraries throughout Illinois. This year's books are on hand with ILNA being on the lookout for new titles to purchase for future years. The annual show planning is looking good as ILNA has high hopes for a sellout bourse. Just a reminder, the annual September show is the number one fundraiser for the organization which helps fund all ILNA programs throughout the year. As always, membership participation is appreciated.

The industry as a whole appears to have stabilized with metal prices holding in a small range while the rare coin market is showing signs of strength and upward movement. There are many collectors searching for coins to fill voids in their personal collections or to upgrade what they already have and as long as this trend continues the hobby should remain strong.

In its early inception, ILNA was filed as a 501c7 non-profit social numismatic club which is required to pay taxes. Over time the organization has shown to be educational and charitable which meets the criteria to be filed as a 501c3 organization which would exempt ILNA from paying taxes. At the board meeting it was decided to begin the paperwork with the State of Illinois to convert ILNA to a 501c3 organization. This move will help ILNA in fundraising as well as saving money on items purchased for the organization which would have been subject to sales tax.

Every year since 2010 Jim Paicz has held the position of Bourse Chairman and has done a spectacular job along with his wife Joyce. After the 2016 show Jim will be stepping down from said position and move to the position of Vice President. Therefore, ILNA will be looking for an individual who would be interested in being Bourse Chairman which is a paid position. Jim will help guide anyone interested until that individual is comfortable with running the show on their own. Please contact me at the e-mail address below if you have interest in the Bourse Chairman's position.

As many of you may be aware, I will be stepping down as ILNA President this September and I fully support Andy Reiber who decided to take over my position. During my tenure I believe ILNA has moved in the right direction which is due in part to working with great dedicated people who believe in the hobby and would like to continue its growth. We are always seeking individuals who are not only looking to grow the hobby but also wish to keep ILNA moving in a forward direction. I ask the membership to take a moment and consider serving as an ILNA board member. Thank you.

I hope everyone has a great summer and I look forward to seeing you at our annual show this September 22nd – 24th.

Steve Harrison

ILNA President

ILNA SECRETARY JOHN SCHIKORA

On April 28th – 30th the Central States Numismatic Society held its 77th Annual Convention. Once again the show was held in Schaumburg, Illinois at the Schaumburg Convention Center and once again ILNA had a club booth promoting its organization while signing up new members. At this time ILNA would like to thank Central States for the complimentary club booth. I was surprised as to how many people stopped by to inquire about ILNA. Almost all the promotional items were handed out which included every plastic carry bag which advertised all the information for our upcoming fall convention September 22nd – 24th. Hopefully the advertising distributions will increase public attendance at this year's show. I was pleased most with the new members who signed up which included a new life member, thank you everyone, ILNA appreciates all the membership support it receives.

Important Notice

May 13th was the biography deadline date for the 2016 ILNA election. Since no biographies were received to contest the four executive seats and four even year governor seats, a balloted election will not be held as stated in the ILNA Constitution By-Laws Article 3, Section 5. On September 23rd at the ILNA convention open board meeting, the new even year board of governors will be introduced and take office. ILNA currently has two open board seats, one odd year and one even which need to be filled. I ask any regular or life members to seriously consider filling one of these vacancies -- you can contact me at jschikora@att.net. A biography will need to be submitted which will be published in the Digest for review. After 30 days of publication, if no negative feedback from the membership is received, a board vote will be taken for a vacancy appointment. Please consider serving for this educative and charitable numismatic organization.

ILNA held its spring board meeting on Saturday morning of the Central States convention. One topic discussed was archiving past issues of the ILNA Digest and making them available online through the Newman Numismatic Portal Project. If anyone has past issues of the Digest from the 1980's and earlier ILNA would appreciate the opportunity to scan them for inclusion in the Digest archives. Individuals with past Digest issues can contact Bill Burd at wildburd@att.net.

In my last letter I spoke about the ILNA website. I mentioned ILNA was currently using the ilnaclub.info domain name and would gradually switch over to the ilnaclub.org domain. Due to an e-mail error, the ilnaclub.info domain name was not renewed and eventually was purchased by another business overseas. Therefore, the official web address for ILNA is www.ilnaclub.org which should be entered when seeking the ILNA website.

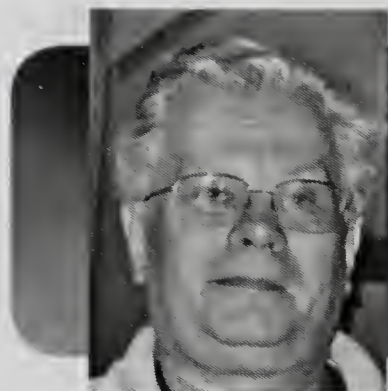

Thank you,

John Schikora

ILNA Secretary

A NOTE FROM BOURSE CHAIRMAN

Jim Paicz

Greetings Everyone:

Summer has arrived and with each passing day the ILNA show grows closer. I am proud to have been a part of planning and executing the annual show over the past seven years. This year ILNA has implemented a new process which will quicken public registration. Attendees are asked to bring their state photo I.D. along with the show postcard which is mailed to them. Your I.D. will be scanned which will store your name and mailing address. This process will eliminate filling out registration forms and will save my wife Joyce countless hours of typing the information in manually. Just a note, if the information on your state I.D. is incorrect you will still have to fill a registration form.

Fox Valley Coins will be hosting another auction this year on Friday September 23rd. Last year's auction proved to be a success for ILNA and this year is building up to match and hopefully exceed 2015. If you would like information on consigning your coins or currency to the September auction you may contact Fox Valley at 630-305-0100, the deadline for consignments is September 1st. As the auction date approaches lot viewing can be found online at www.foxvalley-coins.com through proxibid.

Under my tenure as Bourse Chairman, every ILNA show has presented educational seminars. As of now ILNA has one seminar on Currency Doctoring Detection. Hopefully more seminars will be made available with the help of Carl Wolf and the Chicago Coin Club. If anyone is interested in conducting a numismatic seminar please contact me at the e-mail address below.

In closing on a sad note, Gerry Gerber of Gerber Indian Cents passed away March 27th at 72 years. Gerry was a regular booth holder at the annual ILNA show besides being an Accountant, Eagle Scout and Treasurer of the Tazewell Numismatic Society. Gerry enjoyed the numismatic hobby and will be missed by those who knew him best. Please take a moment and say a prayer for him and his wife Louise. Thank you.

Board Meeting Minutes

YOUR ILNA COIN CLUB BUSINESS

FROM ILNA SECRETARY JOHN SCHIKORA

SPRING BOARD MEETING MINUTES

APRIL 30, 2016

SCHAUMBURG CONVENTION CENTER ~ SCHAUMBURG, ILLINOIS

ROLL CALL

President Steve Harrison called the meeting to order at 10:30am. Also in attendance were Vice President Andrew Reiber, Secretary John Schikora, Treasurer Bill Burd, Chairman of the Board Steve Butler, Governors Jim Paicz, Joyce Paicz, Bruce Perdue, Kevin Timmons, Richard Prouty and John Stankus. There were two guests present, Jack Huggins and Rajni Doshi.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Steve Harrison asked all Board members if they read the minutes from the winter meeting which were e-mailed February 15th. Once confirmed Andrew Reiber motioned to accept the minutes as read, seconded by Bruce Perdue, passed unanimously. Harrison apologized for not renewing the ilnaclub.info web address. The e-mail which contained the renewal information was errantly moved into his spam folder whereby all additional e-mails relating to the renewal were automatically sent to the spam folder as well. During this time the ilnaclub.info address was purchased by another business. Therefore, the new web address for the Illinois Numismatic Association will be www.ilnaclub.org which will be posted on all future ILNA advertising and publications.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

John Schikora notified the Board that the biography deadline date for the upcoming election is Friday May 13, 2016. To date no biographies have been received and if none are received to contest a current seat, a balloted election will not be held.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Bill Burd reported a January 1st balance of $88,436.00 with revenue of $12,147.00 and expenses of $4,097.00 leaving a March 31st balance of $96,486.00. Andrew Reiber motioned to accept the report as read, seconded by Bruce Perdue, passed unanimously.

LIBRARY BOOK REPORT

Andrew Reiber reported enough books were on hand for distribution in 2016.

Reiber recommended that ILNA look into any book titles that are being closed out at a discount price. ILNA should then purchase enough books titles to have on hand for 2017 and 2018.

ADVERTISING REPORT

ILNA will discontinue the radio ads, Chicago Sun Times ads and lower the expenditures for advertising the 2016 show. This decision is due to the addition of Fox Valley Coins hosting the coin auction at the ILNA show. For the 2015 show Fox Valley Coins distributed a large amount of print advertising which included the ILNA show information. ILNA will still continue to advertise in all numismatic publications and websites.

BOURSE CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Jim Paicz stated all bourse applications received after March 1st have the new bourse fees applied which include a $25 table increase. 2016 will be the last year in which the ILNA show will be held in the large convention room. In 2017 the show will be moved to the smaller room to help defray costs. Cook County has passed a 1% rental tax which takes effect May 1, 2016. This tax will affect the cost of the convention room as well as any other rentals which ILNA uses in connection with the show. Due to these added expenses ILNA will check on the costs for the 2018 to determine if the show will continue to be held at the Tinley Park Convention Center. When the show moves into the smaller room there will be no separate storage area. It was suggested renting a U-Haul truck for storage during the duration of the show. Jim Paicz presented a proposal to the Board on purchasing an ID Scanner which can scan any driver's license and store the contact information which saves time from writing and typing it manually. The cost of the scanner which includes one year of technical support is $2500. The scanner can also be leased to other clubs at a rental fee. After discussing the topic in length, Andrew Reiber made a motion to purchase the ID Scanner along with Greater Chicago at $1250 each, seconded by John Stankus, passed unanimously. The show theme for this year will be the US Mint's 100th Anniversary of the Mercury Dime, Standing Liberty Quarter and Walking Liberty Half Dollar.

MEMBERSHIP REPORT

Joyce Paicz reported ILNA currently has 446 members consisting of 182 regular, 123 youth, 111 life and 30 club.

WEBMASTER'S REPORT

Bruce Perdue plans to change the ILNA webpage to a platform friendly design which will allow the ILNA page to be displayed correctly on any size screen. Steve Harrison presented the idea of archiving the ILNA Digest online. Bill Burd and Jack Huggins will check their personal inventories to determine if a complete run of the Digest is available. Bruce Perdue motioned to post the complete run of the ILNA Digest online through the Newman Numismatic Portal Project, seconded by Andrew Reiber, passed unanimously. Harrison also presented the idea of making the Digest available online to ILNA members instead of mailing a hard copy every three months. This would defray printing and shipping costs. After discussion it was decided to table the subject while Bruce Perdue gathers information to present at a later meeting.

501c3 PRESENTATION

Jack Huggins informed the Board that ILNA is currently set up as a 501c7 non-profit social organization which has to pay income tax. However, due to current expenditures incurred by ILNA, profits are offset which results in no tax payments. Under a 501c3 which is a charitable or educational organization, ILNA would be exempt from paying income tax. In turn, sales tax exemptions as well as gift tax exemptions would apply. For ILNA to convert to a 501c3 organization a fee of $850 will need to be paid to the IRS, proper paperwork will have to be filled out and filed, financial information over the past five years will need to be supplied and a presentation for ILNA wanting acceptance will need to be presented. Mr. Huggins offered to fill out the forms and file any necessary paperwork. Once accepted, ILNA will need to annually file Form 990 Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax to maintain the 501c3 status.

FUNDRAISING COMMITTEE

Andrew Reiber said he has been talking with an ANA representative about how to acquire organization sponsorship where having an ILNA sponsor would help offset the expense of the annual convention. Additional information will be available at the next meeting.

ETHICS COMMITTEE

Andrew Reiber stated that at the next meeting he will have a completed form with a list of guidelines a dealer will have to follow when filing a complaint against another show dealer or attendee.

OLD BUSINESS

Bill Burd obtained a quote from Mercer Consumer for liability insurance covering executive and board members. For $1,000,000 in coverage the annual premium is $410 with a $1000 deductible. The policy covers innocent errors in judgement, misstatements, management errors and omissions. The policy does not cover intentional illegal acts or criminal fraud. The coverage is for the board members defense and reimbursement of any loss. After discussion Andrew Reiber motioned to purchase the liability insurance, seconded by Bruce Perdue, passed unanimously. The Board discussed Jack Huggins presentation on ILNA converting to a 501c3 organization. Bruce Perdue motioned for the conversion, seconded by Bill Burd, passed unanimously except for Andrew Reiber who voted against. Jim Paicz will be stepping down as Bourse Chairman after the 2016 show. Since ILNA has no one to take over as Bourse Chairman, a proposal was presented to the Board. Steve Harrison, Andrew Reiber and Jim Paicz who operate the Greater Chicago Show have offered to run the ILNA Show as a committee for an annual fee of $5000. The current annual salary for Bourse Chairman is $1800. The proposal will be discussed further at the next meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

The deadline date for digest material needs to be sent to the Digest Editor by May 20th. Steve Harrison addressed the Board about Archie Taylor who is a hobo nickel carver. Mr. Taylor offered to do free nickel carving at the ILNA convention and asked in return for ILNA to cover his travel and lodging expenses which would approximately total $800. ILNA member Rajni Doshi was introduced and stated his interest in becoming a board member. John Stankus said he approached two grade schools about attending the September convention where bus transportation would be provided by ILNA. Each child who attends the show would be given a $5.00 voucher to purchase numismatic items from dealers. The schools have not yet responded. The next meeting will be July 24th at the Northfield Inn in Springfield at 2:00pm.

ADJOURNMENT

At 12:22pm Andrew Reiber motioned to adjourn the meeting, seconded by Bruce Perdue, passed unanimously.

INTERNET NEWS By BRUCE PERDUE

What is new on the Internet? Well I recently finished my two year term as President of the Central States Numismatic Society. One of the last things that I accomplished as President was having "The Centinel" digitalized by the Newman Numismatic Portal. (newmannumismaticportal.com/) What does that mean? Well Eric Newman has set up the Newman Numismatic Portal in conjunction with Washington University in St. Louis. NNP is attempting to scan all numismatic literature available. They have an extensive library of auction catalogs, numismatic periodicals, including "The Centinel". The ILNA board has recently authorized having the ILNA Digest added to the NNP as well.

The amount of material available on NNP is growing daily. As a research tool it is unparalleled in scope of numismatic information. Books about coins which are in the public domain from ANA and ANS are available. Individual collectors have contributed items from their collections and specialty and clubs have allowed NNP to scan their publications.

I recommend that you take a peek at the NNP and if your club has a publication, offer it to the NNP.

WEBSITE: NEWMANNUMISMATICPORTAL.COM/

So if you have some spare time or have a numismatic research question, go to the NNP and search for what you need. Right now you can search by publication. The plan is to make the entire data base searchable by word or name.

One other internet item I am associated with is the publishing of the weekly “Esylum”. The “Esylum is the electronic newsletter of the Numismatic Bibliomania Society (NBS). Weekly I post the archive copy of the newsletter. While the newsletter is mainly about numismatic books, it is always contains many other items about coins and currency. I recommend it to you as an interesting read. Frequent contributors are many well know numismatic individuals. www.Coinbooks.org/esylum.

2016 ILNA SHOW THEME

US Mint's 100th Anniversary: Mercury Dime, Standing Liberty Quarter & Walking Liberty Half Dollar

2016 Marks the 100th anniversary of the minting of 3 magnificent coin designs. Each 24k Gold design will depict the original coin design and will bear their original face value backed by the federal government. The only variances, other than the metal, are the "W" mint mark of the West Point Mint, as well as the gold weight and purity.

The original Mercury Dime was designed by Adolph Weinman and is also referred to as the Winged Liberty Head Dime. The silver coins were issued into circulation from 1916-1945.

The Standing Liberty Quarter was designed by Hermon Atkins Macneil and issued from 1916-1930. The mint then altered his design and after much dispute he was given the artistic privilege of changing the design to his desire.

The magnificent Walking Liberty Half Dollar was designed by Adolph Weinman and was issued from 1916-1947. This design was considered by many art historians to be the most beautiful coin design in US History.

LOVE TOKENS: BEYOND THE ORDINARY

by Gerald Tebben

While many people view love tokens as just initials engraved on a coin, they are much more diverse, Carol Bastable, president of the Love Token Society, told about 30 collectors attending the Central States Numismatic Society's Spring Seminar in Perrysburg, OH, on May 14.

Bastable, one of four speakers at the daylong seminar discussed Love Tokens, Beyond the Ordinary. She said, "Coin dealers will tell you that love tokens are coins that have been hand engraved. Often a coin is smoothed on one or two sides and then engraved, but among some earlier dated love tokens there are also coins that have not been smoothed and have field engraving with names and dates."

She noted, "The most common love tokens are going to be ones with initials on them."

Love tokens, she said, are actually a form of altered-coin art that includes sculpted coins, pictorial engravings on coins, coins on which gold has been added to elevate design elements and coins that have been engraved and hollowed out to make boxes.

Most, she said, were produced in the 1880s and 1890s. The practice all but died out by the turn of the 19th century to the 20th century but enjoyed a resurgence during World War II.

Love tokens tended to be incorporated into jewelry, so smaller coins were used the most, especially half dimes and dimes. The most common love tokens are on Seated Liberty dimes. Though love tokens are known for every denomination from half cent to $20 double eagle.

Three-cent silver love tokens are scarce, she said, because the coins were so thin that engravers would accidentally slice through them.

Many collectors collect love tokens by denomination and design type. The rarest are half cents and $20 gold pieces - the smallest and largest denominations, she said.

Copper was just too low in value to be widely used on love tokens. Though, she noted, some love tokens are copper and nickel pieces that were gold plated "so you wouldn't look poor giving your girlfriend one."

Toward the end of the love token era, she said, silver jewelry lost its popularity. "The upper classes viewed silver jewelry as declassée." Wealthy people, she said, moved up to gold. Lower classes couldn't afford gold, so they gold-plated copper and nickel pieces.

Quite a few love tokens, surprisingly, are on $3 gold pieces, she said. The coins are fairly large, but have a lower face value than $5 gold pieces, she explained

Buffalo nickel and Lincoln cent love tokens are especially hard to find “because the fad was dying out by the turn of the century,” she said.

Some collectors collect love tokens by date, too. Rare date coins are hard to find, but generally command smaller premiums than non-altered pieces. “The beauty of it is you can generally buy them cheaper than if they hadn’t been engraved and they’re so much rarer,” she said.

She said she has a nearly complete date set of Seated Liberty dimes, missing only the 1846. A friend, she said, is collecting Bust dollars by date. She said she paid $585 for a 1799 Bust dollar that has the date May 13th 1871 and initials engraved on it.

Collectors also collect by sayings and sentiment and by pictorials. These are much rarer than initials.

Sayings and sentiment love tokens have messages inscribed on them. “Some meanings are quite obvious, while others are more ambiguous,” she said. The pieces, she said, are “a little bit of a window into the past.”

Pictorials show an image - flowers, tools, even portraits. “There is some debate as to whether images are purely decorative or also convey some special meaning between the giver and the recipient,” she said.

Some collectors also include potty dollars and opium dollars in their love token collections. Potty dollars, which she views as a semi-related field of collecting, are Seated Liberty dollars that have been re-engraved so that they show Liberty seated on a chamber pot. She thinks they may be political statements from the bimetallism debates of the late 19th century or possibly about the demonetization of trade dollars.

Opium dollars are otherwise known as box dollars. They are typically made from Trade dollars and have space for a picture or contraband to be placed inside. Ones with engraving qualify as love tokens, she said. “It probably never was used to smuggle opium,” she said. “It was made as a locket”

In addition to Bastable’s Love Tokens, Beyond the Ordinary presentation, Peter Huntoon provided a Spotlight on Ohio Nationals & Great Ohio-ans! Brad Karoleff re-imagined a 1970s British TV show, Connections, in a presentation linking Black Pepper, The Mountain That Eats Men & John Reich; and researcher Larry Falater, talked about Toledo, Michigan, in Notes and Lore.

The next Central States’ seminar will be held Oct. 7 at the Sioux City Convention Center in advance of the Iowa Numismatic Association convention, Oct. 8 and 9. Advance registration is required. For more information, contact Central States Education Director Ray Lockwood at Sunrayofmarion@aol.com.
